Chester Robertson

Chester John Robertson was born on November 14, 1950 in

Kenner, LA to the union of Milton and Luberta Evans Robertson. He passed away from this life to live in eternal peace with the Lord on August 8, 2017 at the age of 66 years old. He was a resident of Baker, LA. Chester grew up strong in faith and was reared at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Kenner, LA. He graduated from John Curtis High School. Chester, affectionately known as Chucky or C.J., was loved by many. He was a Southern University graduate and retired after 30 years as a Production Engineer for Florida Gas Transmission. Chester LIVED for Southern University football. He ate, slept, and breathed it. It was a great source of excitement for him and his family loved to experience his joy in watching the Jaguars play. He was an active member of the Blue & Gold Century Club and the Quarterback Club. Chester married the love of his life Barbara Ann Young-Robertson. They shared 45 beautiful years of marriage and had a wonderful life together. They loved to travel and gather with family & friends for a good time. Their home was the source of many lively family gatherings with good food, good music, and fellowship. To their union, two daughters who loved and adored him were born, Felesha and Andrea. Chester lived with the intention to provide a life for his family that was without need. He was dedicated, loyal, a provider, a protector, and always present. He was not a man of many words, but everyone knew that he was very proud of "his girls". He was a strong man, a proud man, a man of honor. Chester enjoyed fishing, barbecuing, FOOTBALL, tailgating, and watching Sci-Fi movies with his grandson. He maintained his friendships and his friends meant so much to him. He had so many cousins, nieces, and nephews that held him at a high esteem and saw him as a father figure. His sister, sisters-in-law, and brothers-in-law all called him BROTHER. He had a deep love for his grandchildren and for his Jack Russell terrier, HoneyRose Robertson. He would always ask his grandchildren, "Who loves you more than me?" He had trained them to reply to him, "Noooo-BODY!" He was and will always be the rock of our family. Chester will be missed dearly by his loving and devoted wife, Barbara Young Robertson; his two daughters, Felesha Jett (Terry) and Andrea Robertson - Harleaux; his grandchildren, Roland IV, Elaina and Gabriel Harleaux (Roland III); his mother, Luberta Robertson; one sister, Paulette Robertson; his godson and nephew, Paul Robertson; his father-in-law, Walter Young; and his companion, HoneyRose. He also leaves to cherish his memory brothers in spirit and love, David (Barbara) Anderson, Harrison (Mae) Cornish, Sr., and Jesse Richards; five sisters-in-law, Brenda (Murphy) Lee, Carrie (Jace) Dickerson, Mylinda (Jerome) Smith, Kathy (Alvin) Bell, and Loretta Young; four brothers-in-law, Albert Young, Jerry Armwood, Earnest Michael Armwood, Dennis (Linda) Armwood, and Michael Young; and many nieces, nephews, extended family and great neighbors. He was preceded in death by his father, Milton Robertson and his mother-in-law, Mattie Isaac. Viewing was held on Friday, August 18, 2017 at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church (1565 Curtis Street, Baton Rouge, La) at 8:00 am until religious services at 10:00 am. Entombment at Heavenly Gates in Baton Rouge, LA.
